

PPS – Professional Protection Systems LTD.

News Release - 5th January 2010

PPS acquired by Versar Inc – USA

PPS are pleased to announce that Versar Inc of the USA have acquired PPS based in Milton Keynes UK to build on their growing worldwide market in PPE.

The purchase provides an exciting platform for PPS to develop its Brand and R&D functions into products for the US market and in return PPS offers a European platform for Versar's National Security Group and their growing product portfolio.

Synergies between the two companies have grown over the recent years and significant investment plans in people and manufacturing are part of a strategy that begins early 2010 developing into an exciting future.

Both companies pride themselves in high quality customised products into many markets including, Nuclear, Pharmaceutical, Emergency Services, Government and many Export areas.

The joining of the two teams of industry successful individuals has been very exciting and 2010 will offer PPS and Versar some dynamic opportunities.
